An 85-year-old widow went on a blind date with a 90-year-old man.

When she returned to her daughter's house later that night,
she seemed upset.

"What happened, Mother?" the daughter asked.

"I had to slap his face three times!"

"You mean he got fresh?"

"No," she answered. "I thought he was dead!"

A farm boy accidentally overturned his wagonload of corn. The farmer who lived nearby heard the noise and yelled over to the boy,
"Hey Willis forget your troubles. Come in and visit with us. I'll help you get the wagon up later."

"That's mighty nice of you," Willis answered, "but I don't think Pa would like me to."

"Aw come on boy," the farmer insisted.

"Well okay," the boy finally agreed, and added, "but Pa won't like it."

After a hearty dinner, Willis thanked his host. "I feel a lot better now, but I know Pa is going to be real upset."

"Don't be foolish!" the neighbour said with a smile. "By the way, where is he?"

"Under the wagon."

Having shot a moose two idiots began dragging it by the tail to their pick-up.

On the way they were stopped by a game warden. "Let me see your hunting licenses boys," he said. When he saw that everything was in order he asked if he could give them some advice.

"Sure!" the hunters agreed.

"Well boys, I think that you would find it a lot easier to drag that moose by the horns and not the tail."

"Aye, O.K. and thanks," said the lads.

After about five minutes one said to the other, "Boy, dragging by the horns is sure a lot easier, eh?"

"Aye, you're right," said his friend, "but have you noticed that we are getting further away from the truck?"

A man walks into a health-food restaurant and orders. He grabs a handful of peanuts from the bowl on the counter by the cash register while he's waiting for his order, and as he starts to chew he hears a voice say, "That's a beautiful tie. Is that silk? Very NICE choice!" Wondering who would make such a strange comment, he looks around and doesn't see anyone near him who could've been speaking to him. With a shrug, he pops a few more peanuts into his mouth. Next he hears a voice, "Those shoes are stylin,' my man. Are they Italian leather? They look GRRREAT!" He whirls around to again but sees no one near him. He glances nervously around and then at his shoes, which he tucks self-consciously under the stool. He immediately calls the waiter over and says, "Look. I keep hearing these voices telling me how great my tie and my shoes look. What's up with that?" "Oh," the waiter nonchalantly replies, "those are just the peanuts." "The PEANUTS?" the astonished man asks, staring at the bowl beside him. "Yes," replies the waiter, "they're complimentary!"

I took a real estate client to a handyman special. The place was great, and we couldn't understand why it was so cheap until we turned on the water main and water gushed from the ceiling. Dripping wet, my client put a positive spin on the showing: "Nice house," he said. "It's even self-cleaning."

A man walks into a bar, and tells the bartender to pour him a 12 year old single malt scotch "before the trouble starts." The bartender pours his drink and quietly moves away. After finishing his drink, the man calls the bartender back and tells him "pour me a 15 year old scotch before the trouble starts." The bartender thinks this is very strange but pours him the 15 year old scotch. After finishing that drink, the man tells the bartender to pour him an 18 year old scotch "before the trouble starts." The bartender is becoming a little worried, but pours him the 18 year old scotch. Before the man finishes his 18 year old scotch, the bartender finally gets up the nerve to ask: "Say friend, when this trouble is going to start?" To which the man replies: "The trouble starts, when you find out that I don't have any money."

A tour guide was showing a tour group around Washington, D. C. The guide pointed out the place where George Washington supposedly threw a dollar coin across the Potomac River. "That's impossible," said the tourist. "No one could throw a coin that far!" "You have to remember," answered the guide, "a dollar went a lot farther in those days."

My wife, a registered nurse, once fussed over every pain or mishap that came my way. Recently, however, I got an indication that the honeymoon is over. I was about to fix the attic fan, and as I lifted myself from the ladder in the attic, I scratched my forehead on a crossbeam. Crawling along, I picked up splinters in both hands, and I cut one hand replacing the fan belt. On the way down the ladder, I missed the last two rungs and turned my ankle. When I limped into the kitchen, my wife took one look and said, "Are those your good pants?"

"Mom, Dad, sit down. I have something very important to tell you," said Samantha, upon her return home from college after graduation. "I met a guy who lives near the college that I really like and we decided we are going to get married!"

"Oh Samantha! I am so happy for you!" Gushed her Mom giving her a big hug, "I hope you two will be really happy together! I can't wait to meet him!"

"Tell us more about him" said her Dad, "does he have any money?"

"Oh Dad! Is that all you men ever think about?"

That was the first question he asked me about you too!"

A real woman is a man's best friend. She will never stand him up and never let him down. She will reassure him when he feels insecure and comfort him after a bad day. She will inspire him to do things he never thought he could do; to live without fear and forget regret. She will enable him to express his deepest emotions and give in to his most intimate desires. She will make sure he always feels as though he's the most handsome man in the room and will enable him to be the most confident, sexy, seductive and invincible man alive. No wait...sorry. I am thinking of scotch. It's scotch that does all that.

"Hi! My name is Gertrude," said the lady next to him on the plane. "It's so nice to meet you! I'm flying to New York for my grandson's third birthday. I'm so excited! He's the most adorable thing you've ever seen! You know what? Hold on, I think I might have a picture on me. Let me take a look in my purse, yes, here it is, just look at him, isn't he adorable. Oh my, and you should hear him on the phone! He is just the cutest, he says to me in the cutest voice "Hi Grandma!" It just gets me all teary eyed." After what seemed like two hours for the poor man sitting next to her, Gertrude seemed to realize that perhaps she was talking a bit too much. "You know, I feel terrible! Here I am just talking and talking without letting you get in a word edgewise! Tell me..what do you think about my Grandson!"

New Years 2014 Get Fit Program

Here's a little secret for building up your arm and shoulder muscles. Be careful to do it gradually. Begin by standing straight with a 5-pound potatoe sack in each hand. Extend your arms straight out from your sides and hold that for as long as you can. Eventually, try to reach a full minute. After a few weeks, move up to 10-pound sacks, then 20 pounds, then 50 and then the ultimate 100 pound sacks.

Try to hold them with outstretched arms for a full minute.

When you feel confident at that level, start putting a couple of potatoes in each sack, but be careful not to overdo it!!!!

Woodland Studio invites you to bring your creative projects to the Curling Club in Christopher Lake on Wednesday afternoons from 1:00 to 4:00 pm. Take advantage of the large bright studio space to work in any medium you prefer. Painting, sculpting, carving, fabric etc. No instruction is provided, just join to talk, laugh and create.

Clean Eating Cobb Salad

You all ate and drank too much and are feeling guilty and bloated. Aren't you? Well I did too, so don't feel bad. I'm gonna help you out with this delicious, non-boring salad recipe to ease your conscience a little.

Ingredients:

6 cups chopped romaine heart lettuce
2 ripe avocados, seeded and peeled, slice into 1" pieces
1 chicken breast, cooked, skin removed and cubed
2 small tomatoes, chopped
2 hard-boiled eggs, peeled and sliced

Dressing Ingredients:

1/4 cup red-wine vinegar
1/2 cup extra-virgin olive oil
1 teaspoon honey
Kosher or sea salt to taste
1/8 teaspoon black pepper

Directions:

Combine salad ingredients in a large bowl. Combine dressing ingredients and drizzle over salad.

"This hotel stinks!" a guest complained when he showed up at the front desk to check out.

"What's wrong?" I asked.

"I got no sleep. Every 15 minutes this loud banging sound woke me up!"

I apologized for the noise and checked him out. A few minutes later, a couple showed up. Again, I made the mistake of asking how their stay was.

"Terrible!" they said. "The guy in the next room was snoring so loudly that we had to bang on the wall every 15 minutes to wake him up!"

We were celebrating the 100th anniversary of our church, and several former pastors and the bishop were in attendance. At one point, our minister had the children gather at the altar for a talk about the importance of the day. He began by asking, "Does anyone know what the bishop does?" There was silence. Finally, one little boy answered gravely,

"He's the one you can move diagonally."

When it comes to wine I'm very particular about what I buy. There are 2 things I look for before making my selection. #1: the word "Wine" must appear somewhere on the label. This is something I insist on. #2: I look for a sign nearby that says "On Sale." Follow these 2 rules and you won't go wrong.

My mother was away all weekend at a business conference. During a break, she decided to call home collect. My six-year-old brother picked up the phone and heard a stranger's voice say, "We have a Marcia on the line. Will you accept the charges?" Frantic, he dropped the receiver and came charging outside screaming, "Dad! They've got Mom! And they want money!"

On a recent flight, an elderly passenger kept peering out the window. Since it was totally dark, all she could see was the blinking wing-tip light. Finally, she rang for the flight attendant.

"I'm sorry to bother you," she said, "but I think you should inform the pilot that his left-turn indicator is on and has been for some time."
